Advocacy

Grassroots Law Project:

612-324-4499

This organization provides anyone who calls with instructions on contacting government officials in Minneapolis and Minnesota.

#Flatten ICE:

Interested people can call detention facilities on Tuesdays as part of the "#Flatten ICE, #Flatten the curve" movement and leave messages advocating for the release of individuals detained in ICE facilities. A number of people have been released as part of this movement.

Campaign Zero:

Campaign ZERO is a data-informed platform that presents comprehensive solutions to end police violence in America. It integrates community demands and policy recommendations from research organizations and President Obama's Task Force on 21st Century Policing. Together, we will win.

Common Justice:

Develops and advances solutions to violence that transform the lives of those harmed and foster racial equity without relying on incarceration. Locally, we operate the first alternative-to-incarceration and victim-service program in the United States that focuses on violent felonies in the adult courts. Nationally, we leverage the lessons from our direct service to transform the justice system through partnerships, advocacy, and elevating the experience and power of those most impacted. Rigorous and hopeful, we build practical strategies to hold people accountable for harm, break cycles of violence, and secure safety, healing, and justice for survivors and their communities.

The Psychology of Radical Healing:

What can psychology tell us about healing from racial and ethnic trauma?

The National Black Justice Coalition:

The National Black Justice Coalition (NBJC) is a civil rights organization dedicated to the empowerment of Black lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer and same gender loving (LGBTQ/SGL) people, including people living with HIV/AIDS. With a particular focus on federal public policy, NBJC is charged with the mission to end racism, homophobia, and LGBTQ/SGL bias and stigma. We work to: Give Voice to the lived experience of Black LGBTQ/SGL people; Take Action to eradicate racism and LGBTQ/SGL bias/stigma; and Build Networks with stakeholders, from the grassroots to the national stage, to support the empowerment of our communities. NBJC works at the intersection of the racial justice and LGBTQ/SGL equality movements by advocating for the unique needs of Black people that are too often ignored or rendered invisible.

Black Emotional And Mental Health Collective (BEAM):

We are a collective of advocates, yoga teachers, artists, therapists, lawyers, religious leaders, teachers, psychologists and activists committed to the emotional/mental health and healing of Black communities.
